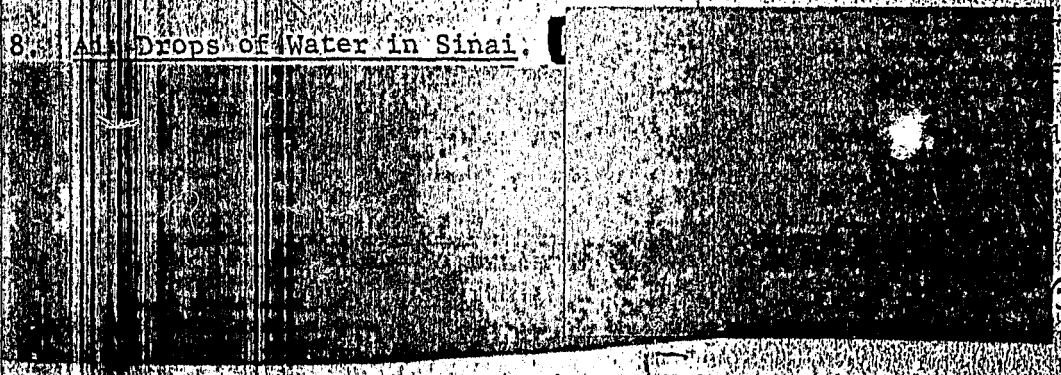
7. No Israeli Request for Ship Information Made. Embassy Tel Aviv reports that Israel did not request information on US ships operating off Sinai until after the USS Liberty incident, contradicting Washington Post stories, citing Israeli sources, that the US had not responded to Israeli inquiries made on June 5.

8. Add Drops of Water in Sinai.



10. Renewed US Air Services to Beirut. Embassy Beirut has recommended the earliest possible resumption of US flag (Pan-Am) and chartered airline services into Beirut.

11. Bulletin. The UK Defense Minister has announced that flying logs of all RAF stations and carriers within 1000 miles of the UAR during the days of the Israeli air strikes will be open for inspection in Commons.

3. New Charges of US Complicity. Mohammad Haykal, Editor of Al-Ahram, claimed that between March and May the US gave Israel 400 new tanks, 200 planes, and 1000 military pilots and navigators from USAF units. He charged the USS Liberty had jammed UAR radar networks and had monitored all UAR operational messages. He mentioned "lies and hypocrisy" when describing President Johnson's request of Kosygin that Nasser be informed that two US aircraft had overflown Sinai in connection with the attack on the USS Liberty.

4. Israeli Demobilization. [redacted]
